A charming and artistic interior design paired with a skillfully landscaped, gorgeous private terrace makes this wonderful Sants / Montjuïc home a fantastic venue for your next shooting. Indeed, the property was a finalist of the European Holiday Home Award in 2015, a prize that distinguishes the very best of the holiday home industry. The house comes with a very spacious and eclectically decorated lounge area furnished with boxes and armoires made of refurbished wood, a circular table with several green chairs around it, and several randomly scattered couches, chairs, tables and ornamental pieces to arrange in whatever way you prefer. This area also comes with an LCD display perfect for playing short movies or a slideshow of photos. This lounge area contains the modern open kitchen tucked away on one side, the proximity of which makes preparing and serving hors d'oeuvres to your guests very simple. The indoor lounge opens to a 80 m2 outdoor terrace with a 4 m long pool surrounded by a pretty grassy area. The terrace is furnished with comfortable lounge furniture and planted with small trees to give the place a natural, Mediterranean atmosphere.

This award-winning venue is located just off the Ronda Litoral, just south of the city center of Barcelona. This hilly region is characterized by its variety of parks and green areas, as well as its proximity to several impressive ports. The neighborhood is largely residential, quiet and peaceful with plenty of privacy. You will find several shops in the area, including a grocery store, where you can purchase everything you will need.
