Description

Price / month from - €

Ivy-covered stone villa steeped in authentic rustic charm available in the Catalan countryside surrounding Cabanelles. Relax on the soft grassy area surrounding the crystalline pool, or enjoy a leisurely breakfast in the picturesque al fresco dining space situated under an ivy-covered pergola. The area surrounding the property is great for jogging or playing outdoor games. Entering the home, you will come across an impressive dining hall with terra cotta floors, dramatic vaulted brick ceilings and beautiful wooden furniture, including a long table and an antique vitrine. At the end of the room is a wonderful open kitchen with jet black cabinets, and everything you could possibly need to cook a large meal for your group. The house features an additional dining room with a similar design but slightly smaller area. Also on the first floor is the sophisticated living room furnished with 2 cozy couches with a beautiful floral print and a working chimney. Upstairs you will find 3 double bedrooms and 1 triple, all boasting elegant wooden beams in the ceilings and beautiful antique furniture. The quiet library nearby features cozy sofas, a beautiful polished wooden desk and shelves lined with books.

The villa has a fantastic location, just 50 km from the French border and a few minutes from the Zona Volcánica de la Garrotxa, a natural park with inactive volcanos. We also recommend visiting the city of Banyoles, known for its beautiful lake great for water sports. Or visit the coastal city of Roses and relax on one of the most fabulous beaches or coves of the Costa Brava.
