Charming apartment, situated near the center, entirely refurbished for your convenience, the perfect choice for your stay in this cosmopolitan city. Under the high ceiling is a precious apartment with practical, yet inviting furniture and attractive and welcoming decoration. The lounge is the perfect space to relax after a long day visiting the wonderful sights of Barcelona thanks to the huge sofa and the large window allowing you to enjoy the fantastic views and make the most of the sun throughout the day. You may also find the bedroom quite warm and inviting as well, because of the wooden texture design and cheerful use of bright colors. On the other hand the kitchen and bathroom both go for a cooler design choice, as evidenced by pristine tiles and the polished granite. Nevertheless, this modern 50m2 has everything you need to call it your new home.

It is situated in Sagrada Familia just a few meters away from the awe-inspiring Basilica, an emplacement that enables you to discover the culture from one of the oldest district of the city. This district is an absolute must see place for everyone that wishes to visit at least one in your life time. It's simply buzzing with cafes, bars and restaurants, and offering various types of cuisine, able to satisfy any foodie or person fascinated by gourmet and adventurous cuisines. One fabulous choice is the La Yaya Amelia, a place not too far from the apartment and known for its lovely atmosphere and good food. Normally, getting around is no problem, there's more than enough public transport.
