It has a maximum capacity of three, which is made possible by the double and single bedroom, both big, bright and furnished for comfort with a tasteful and welcoming design. The living room on the other hand have a big L-shaped comfy couch, two ceiling fans which can come in handy during the summer. The kitchen comes with all the essentials for people who like to take their time cooking or those that live on the go. The bathroom, equipped with a shower, is modest in size and has a clean polished look.

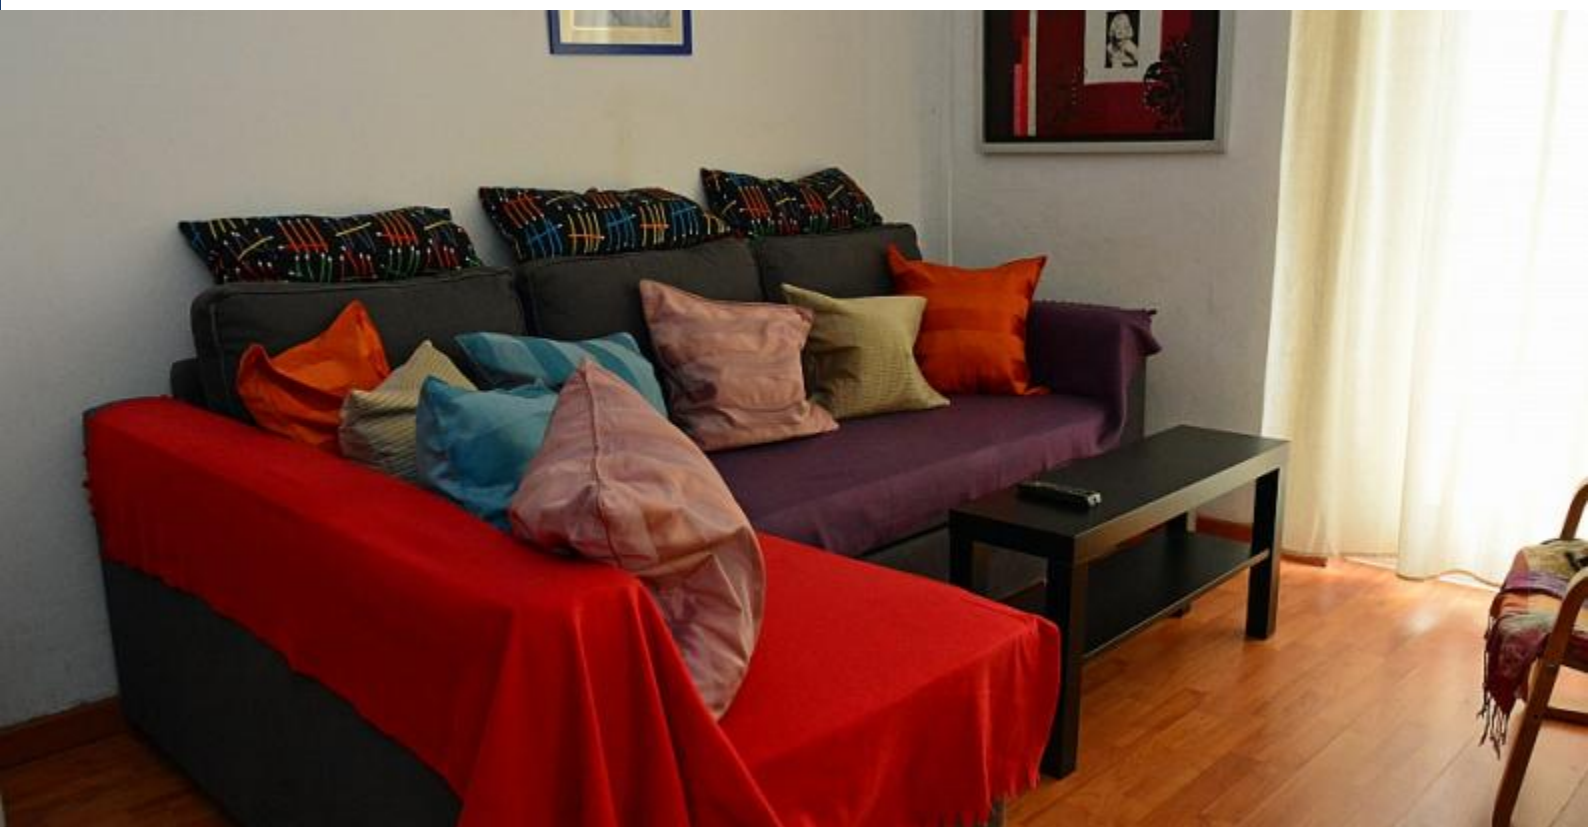

This location is a great for a new home as Ciutat Vella is a district of many colors and attitudes; a place where chic, bourgeois, bohemian, hip and other styles come together to make up the kaleidoscopic image of Ciutat Vella. You can find any food, drink, shop, language and culture under the sun here - there is no such thing as shortage in these busy streets. In addition to the countless bars, restaurants, museums and galleries, being located in the center makes it in proximity to many great places, e.g the Palau Güell, Mirador de Colon or the Sant Antoni Market. It is easy to get around from this part of the city because of its location and its well-connected public transportation, the closest metro stations being Sant Antoni (L2) and Paral·lel (L2 and L3).
