Description

Price / night from 133€

Price / month from 4000€

Ever wanted to wake up in a seafront apartment with amazing views of the city and still be in the center ? Well now you can do exactly that in this fabulous designer apartment. It comes with three stylish double bedrooms, two with single beds and a master bedroom with a private bathroom of its own. The great selling point of this flat is how great the living room is, you can kickback and relax on the sofas or enjoy your dinner as you while admiring the view of the Mediterranean Sea from here.

Gothic Quarter is a historic part of the center with medieval architecture that still remains to this day. These little narrow street form a labyrinth where you can lose yourself and enjoy the moment, especially when behind each corner there are more shops, bars and such just waiting to be discovered. Also many of Barcelona's finest attractions are sight are in this part Barcelona, ranging from museums like the historic museum Clariana-Padellàs House, to buzzing with action plazas like Sant Felip Neri or Sant Jaume I. It's location allows it for easy access to many different parts in Barcelona, this is made possible by the abundant public transportation, namely the buses and the busy metro system, closest station of which is the Drassanes station where you can hop on the L3 line.
