The apartment has two double bedrooms, both spacious and welcoming, and one of them even has access to property's own balcony. The kitchen makes great use of space as it showcases a full array of appliances in one neat package, with a cozy dining bar next to it where you can enjoy your food right on the spot. The bathroom is compact, outfitted with a shower and is designed with crisp white tiles and a brown highlight which all in all gives this place a fresh clean look.

This apartment is located in a quiet part of the Hospitalet that's also well-connected with public transportation. The area is full with little shops, bars and places to eat, there isn't such a thing as shortage of choice here.
