Wonderful apartment located in the neighborhood of Poblenou. The place is cozy, has a lovely sunny interior, huge windows hardwood floors and it is fully furnished for a fresh trendy look. It comes with two bedrooms, one with a double bed and the other with a single one. The living room is bright and it's comprised of couple of spaces: a dining area delightful spring green appeal with charming furniture, a lounging space with a big comfy double sofa bed and delightful orange walls. It also features a compact open kitchen with a full set of equipment and green mosaic tiles.

The apartment is pet-friendly, which is great news for animals lovers. The location is amazing as well - first of all it's a quiet neighborhood, yet its youthful energy makes it one of the most exciting and up and coming places in Barcelona. The area is filled with shops, supermarkets, restaurants and bars, so there's always a little something for everyone. The most appealing aspect is that it's unbelievably close to the sea, in fact your new home would be a short walk away from the beach.
