Surroundings

Penthouse Batlló is located in the heart of Modernist Barcelona, just meters from the Casa Batllo the world celebrate Antonio Gaudi greatest exponent of Catalan Modernism and more precisely in the so-called "apple of discord" which is the name given to a stretch of the Paseo de Gracia located between the streets of Aragon and Consell de Cent. This is a set of five buildings: the Casa Lleó Morera by Lluís Domènech i Montaner, Casa Mulleras of Enric Sagnier, Marcel Bonet House · lià Coquillat, Amatller House Josep Puig and Casa Batllo by Antoni Gaudi . Any area located around the Passeig de Gràcia and delimited Aribau Street and Passeig de Sant Joan, Sant Pere rounds and the University and the Avenida Diagonal, is a privileged area of L'Eixample which was consolidated as the center where the Barcelona bourgeoisie lived the last decade of the nineteenth century and early twentieth century, coinciding with the emergence and spread of modernism. Thus, the Square de Oro (Golden Square), as this area is called, became the center of Modernist Barcelona. Today you will find all kinds of shops and renowned luxury shops and many dining and entertainment.

You can find multiple bus lines and subway just down the floor so it will be very easy to access any part of the city in a short time can also visit many cultural tourist interest areas simply walk from home, however you can find stop tourist bus just around the corner. From the train station near Paseo de Gracia will take less than 20 minutes to the airport and 45 minutes to the beaches of Sitges, pretty fishing village south of Barcelona. Batllo Penthouse is located in a very safe neighborhood, we find elegant estates even today inhabited by the Catalan bourgeoisie and, usually, by people with high purchasing power.
