Surroundings

Despite its humble beginnings as a settlement built on a medieval sight for fairs and celebrations, Born has grown to become one of the most modern areas in the city. During the day, the cafes are full and at night people rush to the Passeig de Born (which is according to the locals the original site of the fair) to try out the different bars that serve great mojitos. Also at the Passeig de Born is said to be located the best pizza place in Barcelona, and at just € 1.50 a portion you can't refuse! However, Born is not only about the night life, there is also a lot of culture to see. On Calle Montcada, an ancient medieval street, you will find the Picasso Museum and the Textile Museum, which has a lovely small cafe with terrace. The Textile Museum is located here because, in the beginning, the textile guilds housed Born in Barcelona. Also in this neighbourhood there is a beautiful cathedral which you can visit and if you're lucky witness a wedding! Public transport and parking
